

ZAIN MITCHLAN

Zain Mitchlan is back to celebrate with the incredible Hay family for Rainbow on the Plains Festival 2020. Drawing inspiration from his experiences with life, his feelings, and emotions are unmistakably vivid during his performances. As someone who identifies with the LBGTQI+ community, Zain understands the uphill battle in equality and has firsthand experience in dealing with the social stigmas surrounding it. Mitchlan uses these experiences to find a deeper meaning in his music to empower his performances to bring the element to everyone.
